
MUSTANG

Illinois [illegible], 11

Dear, Dear Atkins,

This is to one who has shared my dreams, my hopes, my successes, my failures; to one whom I'll alway remember as the very best and the most unstanding friend I ever had!

Because we are basically very much alike, we have been able to fuss, and to make up; to let off steam at each other, and to apologize; to love each with a love that few people understand, and to hate each other fervently without really disliking one another!

Too, we have shared memories — memories that I will never forget — and problems — thanks for listening to mine.

How can I use words to tell you how wonderful you've been to me — how wonderful it has been knowing you! No Words can ever express exactly what I want to say. But you know, because you know me!

I must close, sweetie. Please Continue always to be a dreamer, but be a fighter and keep your feet on the ground. Make the Spark better than ever.

GOD BLESS YOU,
LOVE ALWAYS,
Judy McManus

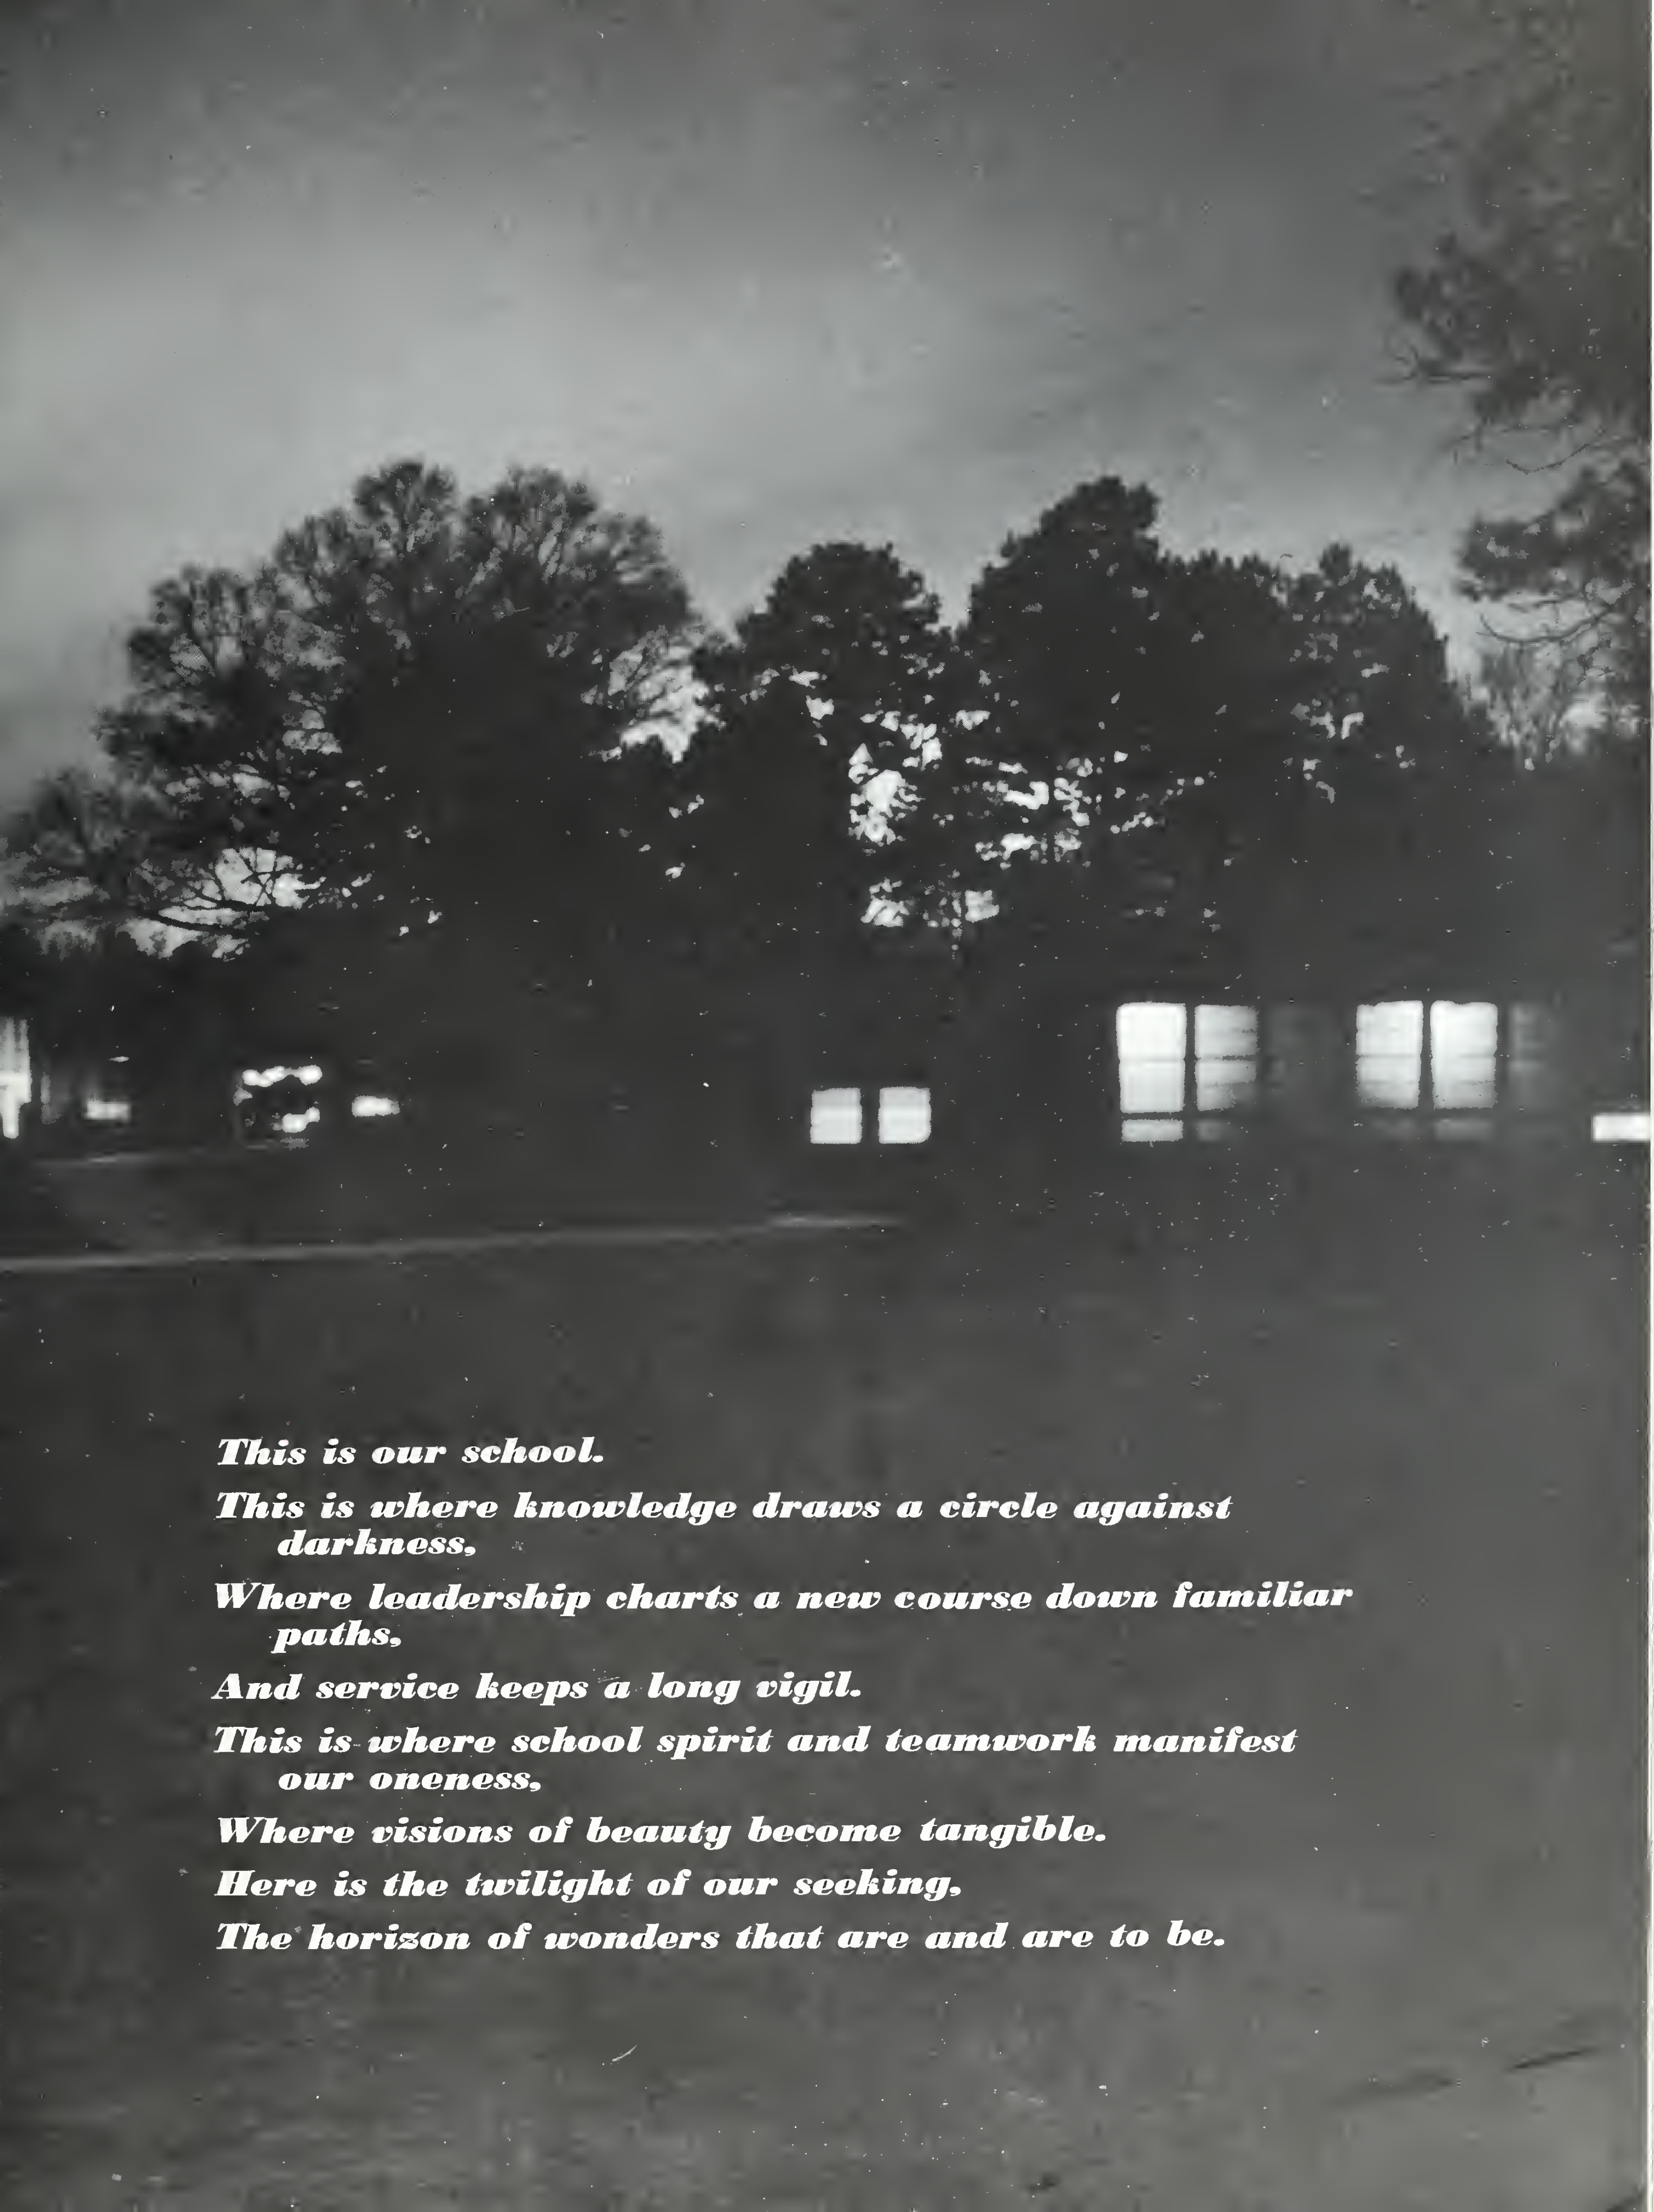
Volume 7



This is our school.

This is where knowledge draws a circle against darkness,

Where leadership charts a new course down familiar paths,

And service keeps a long vigil.

This is where school spirit and teamwork manifest our oneness,

Where visions of beauty become tangible.

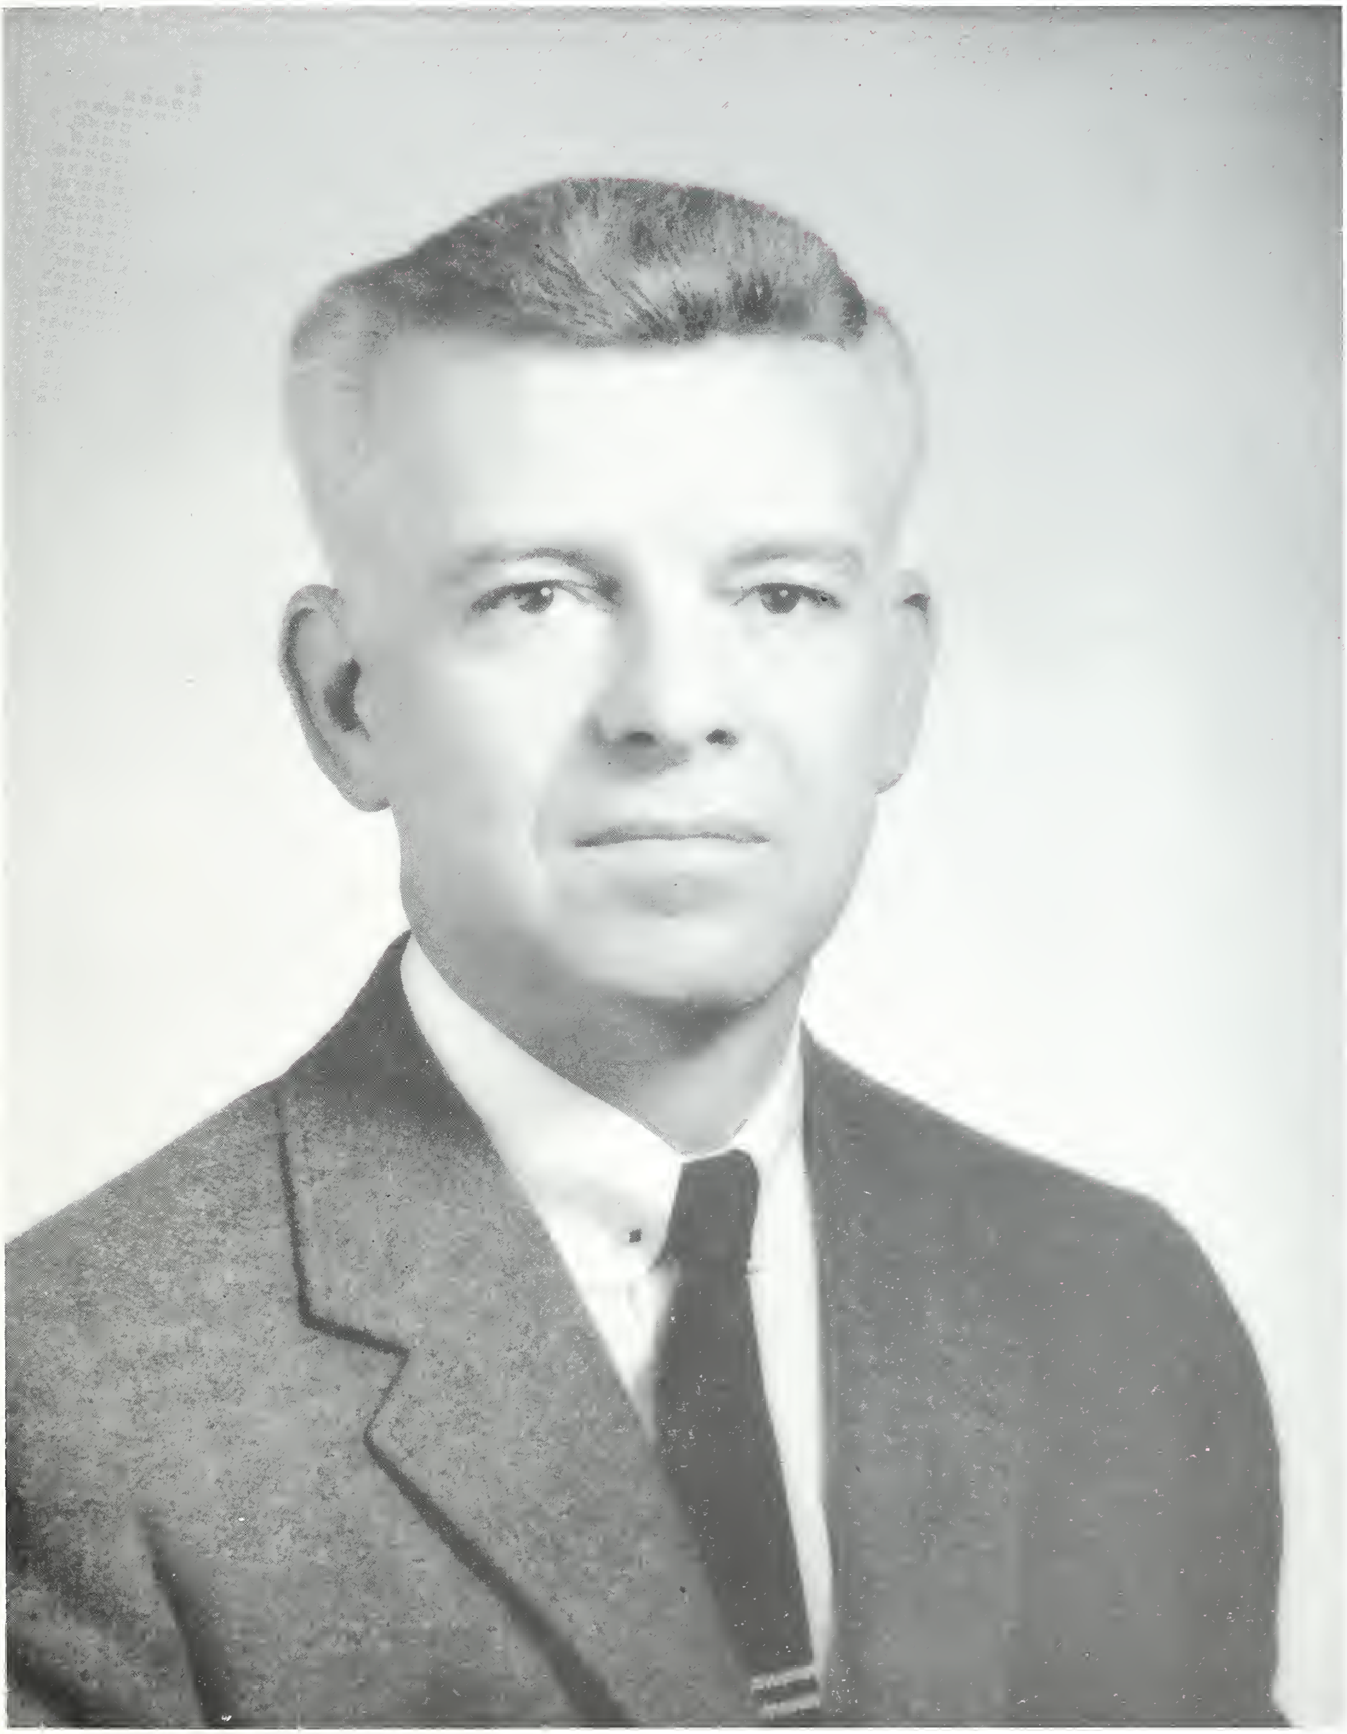
Here is the twilight of our seeking,

The horizon of wonders that are and are to be.

Dedicated to

The students of Myers Park High School wish to recognize one who embodies leadership and service, one who has unselfishly given us encouragement in our scholastic endeavors and wise counsel in our many activities. As a symbol of our sincere appreciation and deep-felt affection, we proudly dedicate the 1958 MUSTANG to Mr. Ernest Feimster.

Mr. Ernest Feimster



Foreword

SINCE THE BEGINNING OF TIME, man's quest for things of value has produced the Seven Wonders of the World. Since the beginning of our Myers Park world, seven years ago, the hopes, dreams, and aspirations of our students have produced the Seven Wonders of Myers Park.

The desire to learn has grown into Knowledge; the willingness to serve to the utmost has brought about Leadership; the devotedness to the school and community has resulted in Service; the longing to produce beauty in sound and arts has fostered Creativeness.

We understood our responsibility to the school and we had faith in our many teams. These feelings we have showed in School Spirit. Fair and successful play have been the goals of our sports participants, and their Teamwork has shown that these goals were genuine. Determination to excel and the recognition for a job well done have brought us Attainment.

We who have grown with these wonders will long remember all of the rich experiences they represent, and we know they will endure from year to year as each class departs and a new one takes its place.

The staff of the 1958 Mustang has endeavored to record for you the Wonders of Myers Park as they have been a part of our school year.

Senior Class 1958

For three hundred and fourteen seniors, this year will hold happy and nostalgic memories, for 1958 has been the culmination of a rich experience filled with achievement, recognition, service, leadership, and good fun.

Lynwood Mallard, Treasurer, Bill Taylor, President, Ray Farris, Vice-President, Lucy Barnes, Secretary

Awesome, yet wonderful, being a senior meant that futures had to be planned for; therefore, College Day and College Board Examinations helped many to find their niche in institutions of higher learning. The quest for knowledge and the desire for strong academic background took on new meanings as the seniors puzzled over Canterbury Tales and Macbeth, term papers, trigonometry and senior math, physics and chemistry, and foreign languages. Electives which enriched their program included world literature, drama, music, and advanced art.

Extra-curricular activities played an important part in each busy senior's life. Many held offices on the Student Council, others worked untiringly on the numerous senior committees. Practically every senior belonged to one of the service clubs, and the more talented ones took the lead parts in major musical and dramatic productions. Loyal and devoted class members filled most of the major staff positions of the yearbook and school paper.

Outstanding recognition came to the class of '58 as individuals received scholarships, athletic awards, civic awards, coveted positions of leadership, membership in the Honor Society, and awards for outstanding musical performances.

Class activities not soon to be forgotten were the Senior Picnic, the numerous school dances, the Senior Follies, the Senior Banquet, and, of course, Graduation and last good-byes to a wonderful Alma Mater.

Junior Class

What a wonderful esprit de corps prevailed as the Juniors tackled this year's class and scholastic adventure. Highlights of the year included the arrival of class rings, money-raising projects, and the memorable Junior-Senior.

Classwork led the Juniors into varied new experiences — role playing in American History, the TV history class, strange vocabulary words, term papers, Emerson and other great American writers, physical education, foreign languages, advanced math and sciences.

The Junior Class won its share of honors as outstanding members were tapped into Honor Society and were named to All-State Band and Orchestra.

Sophomore Class

This year's Sophomore Class was an energetic force behind all school activities. Service clubs, athletic teams, the annual, the school paper, and music groups all made up a part of the busy sophomore's life.

Scholastic activities which balanced their extra-curricular activities were Driver's Education, world history, English and Brutus' funeral oration, algebra with quadratic equations, French and Spanish verbs and vocabularies and, naturally, biology with extinct bugs to be collected and clammy frogs to be dissected.

Steve Bost, Rita Robertson, Alice Stratton, and Charles Vinroot study the circulatory system of frogs.

Freshman Class

Freshmen, making their first big step into high school, ably filled positions of leadership and service by leading the Junior High Student Council and Junior High Honor Society. In classrooms they pondered X=Y, made Latin a lively subject, mastered diagramming in English, and tried their talents in Journalism I.

Eighth Grade

Eighth graders, small in number but large in achievements, gave our school enthusiastic support. Especially outstanding was their wholehearted support of Teacher Appreciation Day. Their classroom experiences included introductory foreign languages, North Carolina history, shop, art, and sewing.

Student Council

Composed of the four major officers, thirteen school committees, the representatives from each senior high homeroom, and Dr. Horner, the advisor, the Student Council is the nucleus around which the activities of Myers Park High School revolve.

Several projects were undertaken this year, including sponsoring four annual school dances — Homecoming, Christmas, Sadie Hawkins, and Valentine; holding a rummage sale to raise funds for the Christmas project; establishing the American Field Service Committee for the purpose of aiding in the school's Foreign Exchange Student Program; and issuing the second annual student handbook, "Information Please," by the Handbook Committee.

Student Council committees played an important part in our school's functions. The Public Relations Committee kept all students well informed on school functions; the Club Committee chartered all school clubs; the Assembly Committee provided varied and interesting programs; the Ways and Means Committee handled all financial problems. The House and Grounds Committee did a very commendable job in monitoring both campus and cafeteria, while the Traffic Committee lessened one of Myers Park's most troublesome problems. School Spirit Committee members developed pep and enthusiasm throughout the year and sponsored many after-the-game open houses. Four memorable dances were staged by the Dance Committee, and the Student Opinion Committee proved successful.

Through hard work and constant effort, the Student Council once again achieved its honored goal — the development and betterment of Myers Park High School.

Similar to the Senior group, the Junior High Student Council is composed of the four main officers, homeroom representatives, and various committees. This year they devised a monitor system and a student court to help individuals realize the responsibility of school citizenship. They sponsored two dances during the year: a formal dance at Christmas and a sock hop in the spring. As a fund-raising project they produced a talent show.

Senior High Honor Society

Membership in the National Honor Society is the culmination of industrious striving and the cultivation of higher ideals. Selected on the basis of faculty recommendation and high scholastic achievement, Honor Society members served both school and community by supporting Muscular Dystrophy, a coaching program, College Day, and the Honor Society Scholarship.

One annual is scarcely distributed before another is in the planning stage. Thus the 1958 Mustang staff began their planning while the '57 staff enjoyed the product of their long hours of work. Before school closed last June, this year's staff had begun working on theme ideas, layout possibilities, and new approaches in telling the story of our school year.

Late June and early July found the editorial advisor, editor, and the art editor in frequent meetings at Charlotte Engraving and Washburn Printing Companies. The theme began to crystalize; paste-up dummies were made; new ideas grew by leaps and bounds. By early August the major staff met and voted on the ideas and gave additional suggestions. The '58 Mustang was underway!

With the opening of school, activity in LA 21 gained momentum. During September each section editor and his staff worked diligently on layouts and picture plannings, and by October they had submitted all sketches to the engraver. While the final dummy was being prepared, the class section tackled its hardest job — individual pictures and class snapshots. The subscription drive got underway, and the advertising staff began to apply their salesmanship.

From November through February the annual room and the darkroom became familiar haunts for the '58 staff. Pictures were scheduled, taken, developed, printed, and sometimes retaken. Creative minds struggled with captions and write-ups. Deadlines loomed on the horizon, causing many sleepless nights. There were frustrations and crises, panics and procrastination pills; but intermingled with the hard work came the closeness and good fellowship of working together and the satisfaction of mastering a challenge.

Now the cycle is finished once more, and the 1959 staff can be found in LA 21, making plans for another year, another annual.

'SPARK HAS YEAR OF CHANGES

Judy McManus

Ramelle Wattersan

McMANUS AND WATTERSON HEAD STAFF; BRAUCH IN CHARGE OF BUSINESS

Co-editors Judy McManus and Ramelle Watterson and Business Manager Buddy Brauch headed up a staff that worked long and diligently to bring Myers Park a bigger and better 'Spark. With their leadership and journalistic know-how they succeeded in covering every phase of our school activities, from timely "scoops" to the tense sports events. Few students realize the hours after school, at night, and on Sunday afternoons that the 'Spark staff spent planning and publishing the fifteen issues.

This year the 'Spark has been the best ever. The staff succeeded in recording pertinent news and events in attractive issues that every student will keep to look back on.

Mrs. Taylor and Buddy Brauch check the advertising accounts.

NEW LOOK PLEASES

From the mast-head to the last page, this year's MyerSpark has been all new. As a part of their "new look" approach, the staff changed from customary newsprint to an enamel paper, thus improving the appearance of the paper and making it have much more eye appeal. The choice of bold, heavy type helped make headlines, banners, and copy stand out more.

The photography staff, striving for improvement, gave more pictorial coverage of all school events and created interest with their originality. The new quality of paper made the 'Spark pictures clearer, sharper, and more detailed.

The student body was well pleased with the "new look for '58."

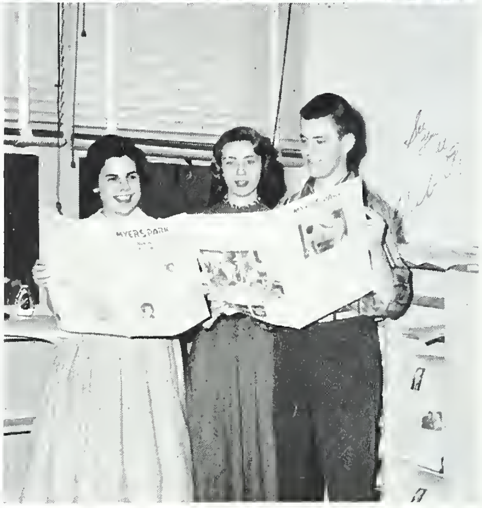
MRS. TAYLOR SWITCHES TO JOURNALISM

Although her face is familiar to students at Myers Park, Mrs. Taylor is new to the Journalism Department. Formerly our assistant librarian, Mrs. Taylor changed to English and Journalism this past fall. Under her guidance the 'Spark staff has met its goal of improvement, has upheld high standards of journalistic style, and has encouraged original student writing.

'SPARK IS VOICE OF THE STUDENTS

In addition to keeping Myers Park informed of current news and events, the 'Spark voiced the feelings of the student body in many thought-provoking editorials. "Letters to the Editor" were published and given open-minded consideration. Thus, through the medium of the school paper, Myers Parkers were able to bring to light many activities and situations which deserved praise or needed correction. Sample editorials included: "Help Myers Park, City Improve School Relations," "Who Can Be a Critic?" "Limelighters Deserve Praise," "Myers Park Grows Up, Proves Maturity to City." The discussions concerning the Honor Code which appeared in the 'Spark were instrumental in keeping the students aware of both the progress and the weaknesses of the program.

Perhaps more than ever before, this year's 'Spark has fulfilled the purpose of a student publication and has proved the "power of the printed word."



Ramelle, Judy, and Buddy look over the golleys with Mr. Gene Moore.

Goil, Ann, and Bill compore the "new" with the "old" and ore evidently pleosed.

PRINTER IS VITAL TO SUCCESS OF 'SPARK

The job of printing the MyerSpark is indeed an important one. The printer works closely with the paper staff to eliminate errors and to make the paper more appealing in layout and format. With the idea of improvement always foremost in their minds, the editors decided to experiment with a new printer. They found the change to be completely satisfactory and were pleased to have such an important part of publishing their paper in such competent hands.

With their motto, "We Build," as their guide, the Key Club has sponsored many varied activities this year. Their projects included sponsoring buses to out-of-town athletic contests, distributing the annual Key Club Directory, ushering at the Ice Capades, helping establish new Key Clubs in two Charlotte schools, and adopting a needy family at Christmas.

With members in all of the forty-eight states and Canada, Key Clubbers are proud of the standards they uphold. Only boys who have shown outstanding qualities of leadership, citizenship, scholarship, and sportsmanship are chosen.

Sponsoring an annual tea at the beginning of the school year, the Ambassadors welcomed all new senior high girls to Myers Park. They made and sold tassels at every football game and boosted pep by initiating and sponsoring many new school spirit contests. To aid disabled veterans, they sold forget-me-nots, and they brought joy to many by caroling at Christmas time.

Service is the by-word of the Ambassadors as they work for their school and their community. Membership is determined by a point system based on the character, extra-curricular activities, and scholastic averages of prospective members.

Y teen

To grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God is the aim of every girl who is a member of the Senior High Y-Teens. Working together and in close cooperation with the Young Women's Christian Association, these girls undertook many projects this year. They dressed dolls for the Salvation Army, made Christmas stockings for the Spastic Hospital, sold Myers Park pillows, made tray favors for the County Home, and worked for the United Appeal and the March of Dimes.

F.T.A.

To promote interest in the teaching profession is the ultimate goal of the Future Teachers of America. Correcting papers for teachers, acting as substitutes, and attending lectures on various phases of specialized teaching all helped to carry out the purpose of this club. They held active membership in the city-wide organization and observed in junior high and elementary schools.

Members of this year's Future Homemakers of America chapter did much toward reaching their main objective, encouraging democracy in home and community life. The highlight of the club's activities came at Thanksgiving when the girls provided favors and entertainment for the people in the County Home.

A banquet in the spring climaxed a very successful year.

Hi-Y

Under the sponsorship of the Young Men's Christian Association, the Hi-Y Clubs at Myers Park are pledged to high ideals and deeds of service.

Helping to sponsor a mammoth toy drive at Christmas and raising funds for the Inter-Club Scholarship were only two of the many achievements of the Senior Hi-Y. Mr. Ernest Feimster was the club's advisor.

One of the largest clubs in the school, this year's Monogram Club had well over one hundred members. Because of the increased interest in athletic participation, the club has grown steadily in the past years. There are now nine different sports in which a boy may earn his letter and thus be eligible for membership.

The activities of the Monogram boys varied from the main money-making projects of selling booster cards and operating the concession stand at home games to providing ushers for the reserved sections at athletic events. Most of the club's money went to the athletic fund, but the group also helped the Empty Stocking Fund and the March of Dimes. The Myers Park monogram has been carried proudly and successfully by the members both in their athletic participation and in their club activities.

Drama

The Limelighters' theatrical season of 1957-58 was an ambitious one, even for an experienced group of young players. The Drama Department, in co-operation with the Music Department, opened with Finian's Rainbow, a popular Broadway musical comedy, which played for three nights to standing room only. An experimental production of William Saroyan's The Beautiful People was staged in February in the Little Theater Room. The surrealistic and symbolic setting with its dramatic lighting proved interesting in underlining the sensitivity of an unusual script.

For the first time, the dramatics group presented a new play. Amon Liner, an outstanding member of the group, furnished an original script, "The Blind One," which was introduced in a bill of one-acts including "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil," "The Slave with Two Faces," and "The Farce of the Worthy Master Pierre Pantelin." For the traditional out-of-doors Shakespearean production in May, the Limelighters chose Romeo and Juliet which was the final show of an interesting and varied season of theater.

"It's Simply a Question of Who Lives Here — the Mice or Us," explains David Burns to Laura Harris in "Beautiful People."

"Just a Drop for My Stomach," Frankie McDonald Assures Himself in "Beautiful People."

As strains of familiar themes in music emanated from B-4 every fifth period, eighty members of the school orchestra perfected their technique and prepared for numerous public appearances. This group won renewed acclaim for its style of performance and tonal quality.

This year's orchestra program included a variety of symphonic and operatic music. For the kick-off banquet of the United Appeal and for the South Piedmont Teacher's Meeting they presented themes from Puccini's operas. They gained valuable experience in working with the Drama Department in Finian's Rainbow. The most impressive performances given by the orchestra, however, were during the Christmas and Easter presentations of Handel's Messiah with the choir.

As is their custom, the orchestra participated in the annual District and State Music Contests. Several members played in the All-State Orchestra.

Performing "The Messiah" for the Student Body.

In the vast music program at Myers Park five vocal groups presented superior performances. These groups included the chorus, composed of second and fourth period music classes; the choir, selected from members of the chorus; the Girls' Ensemble and the Boys' Octet, chosen from the choir; and the Junior High Chorus, composed of the third period music class.

The choir presented programs of sacred music at local churches and made tape recordings for WBT. At Christmas and Easter they performed in the Messiah with the chorus and orchestra. The Girls' Ensemble sang before various service clubs in the city, and the Boys' Octet presented programs for men's clubs in various churches. Members from all of the groups made up the chorus in Finian's Rainbow.

The Choir and the Girls' Ensemble attended the District and State Music contests in early spring.

and school performances were the outgrowth of classwork.

The band presented concerts in December, February, and April, playing from their repertoire which included standard symphony literature.

During the early fall they worked hard perfecting their marching formations for the football season. Their lively music and colorful uniforms helped to boost school spirit immensely. In November they took part in the annual Carrousel Parade; in early spring they entered the District and State Music contests, and some individuals participated in the All-State Band.

Promoting school spirit was a full time job for the nine girls that made up our Senior High Cheerleaders. Not only were they present rain or shine at every football game, but all over the campus they displayed the pep and vivacity that made us all feel that glow of pride in Myers Park.

Under their advisor, Miss Martha Akers, these girls evolved many new and attractive routines for leading the cheering section. To boost school spirit during the football season, they made a 35 foot banner every week. Among their other important duties, the cheerleaders aroused interest and enthusiasm for sports at all pep rallies.

The superior school spirit shown by Myers Parkers this year was the result of the fine example set for our student body by these loyal girls.

Mustang Club

Sponsored by the School Spirit Committee, the Mustang Club fostered school spirit by encouraging attendance at concerts, drama productions, athletic events, and other school functions. Thirty-five school-minded seniors, juniors, and sophomores made up the charter members. Later in the year other students who had earned points by attending school activities joined the group.

For their main project the Mustang Club sold Myers Park pennants and made programs for the Senior Varsity Basketball games.

Lettergirls

Beginning in August, ten school-spirited girls began learning what "right-pivot" meant. Working with the band all through the football season, they had one aim — to bear their school's name proudly. "All the way, Mustangs. All the way!" typified the '57 football spirit at Myers Park. An undefeated season plus wins over Canton and Winston-Salem Gray led to the Western AA championship. The mighty eleven then traveled to Elizabeth City where state championship hopes were crushed by a narrow margin.

The amazing concentration of talent which the coaches moulded into this winning team was led by senior backs Farris, Mallard, Mooney, Shulman, and Allison; guards Fox, Mason, and Reiney, with Gallagher and Anderson at tackle and center. Beaver proved himself a past-master at the extra point while Farris' punting and passing won national recognition.

For the first time traditional rivals, Central and Harding, fell prey to the Mustangs as impressive victories were tallied by the Myers Parkers.

Besides outplaying all opponents, the Mustangs demonstrated such excellent sportsmanship, that the names Myers Park and Sportsmanship have become synonymous.

1958's basketball team, captained by Zach Thomas and Robert Summerville, showed the competitive spirit and hustle that is characteristic of all Myers Park teams. The early season's record does not reflect the Mustang's skill or determination as their schedule included some of the best AAA teams in the state.

Lack of height proved a hardship which the Mustangs finally overcame with the fast-break combination of Summerville, Thomas, and Timmerman. Duncan Morton's uncanny dexterity under the rim and David Underwood's ability to confuse his opponents rounded out the well-balanced team.

Coach Jack Sink's Jay-Vees crowned their regular season's record of sixteen wins to six losses with the conference tournament championship. A winning Jay-Vees team seems to have become a tradition at Myers Park with a record during the past four years of twenty-five wins against fifteen losses. Tom Blanton paced the team as high scorer, while Steve Sobel, Hill Wellford, Hal Beaver and Steve Byrum won recognition for teamwork.

TENNIS TEAM

Tennis

Although the Myers Park netmen were short on experienced players, they were strong in force. Over twenty-five boys turned out for spring practice, and the first-string team consisted of the top ten players who exhibited promising skill. Much of the team's strength rested on returning lettermen Lloyd Bost, Mike Shulman, and Bobby Bell, and on Juerg Mueller, exchange student from Switzerland.

The netters held matches with Salisbury, Gastonia, Hickory, Central, Asheville, and North Mecklenburg.

Lloyd Bost and Bobby Bell demonstrate the overhead smash.

Cross Country

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Once again Myers Park has run away with a championship as David Gilmour, Charles Powell, and Bill Carr finished first, second, and fourth places in the state cross country meet. Tommy Stockton and Gaines Wilburn were outstanding in many events. The only flaw in the otherwise perfect record was a one-point loss to the Duke freshmen whom they had previously beaten.

Schedule

MP	21	Wake Forest Frosh	40

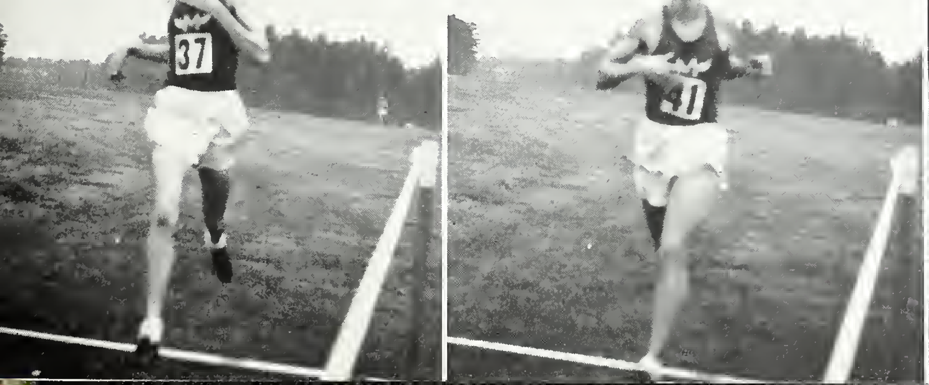
MP	1st Place	State Meet

The one-two punch, David Gilmour and Charles Powell streak across the finish line to capture first and second places in the state meet.



David and Charlie hold the trophy which the team won in the state meet.

SWIMMING TEAM

Swimming, a relatively new sport at Myers Park, stole the post-football season spotlight by defeating the much touted teams of Raleigh and Greensboro, and also by breaking the state free-style relay team record. Individual performances from Bill McGinty, Tommy Rogers, Julius Barnhardt, Philip Conner, Bill Sanford, and divers Buddy Parrott and Billy Gilbert sparked the team to its most successful season.

Swimming

Wrestling

Boasting great skill and ability, Coach Shoe's powerful Mustang grapplers extended their winning streak to eleven straight victories, before losing the state championship to Boone.

The Mustangs made a good showing by placing Captain Graham Allison second, Bo Willard, Goody Thomas and Eddie Edwards third, and Bill Taylor and Pete Eliot fifth in their respective weights at the state meet.

With a membership of over four hundred senior high girls, the G.R.A. had its best year. Part of this success was due to a new constitution and point system put into effect this year and also to the varied activities which the club offered.

The club sponsored a number of individual sport clubs which gave a girl an opportunity to increase her skill in a sport and to enjoy participating in it. The sports clubs were headed by a chairman who was on the Executive Council.

The club also sponsored the Girls' Varsity Basketball and Tennis teams. The basketball team was given warm-up jackets, a much-needed item. These jackets were paid for with money made from the G.R.A.'s winning first place in the annual barbecue ticket sale.

The G.R.A. made two trips this year — to present a water ballet at Wake Forest for a state convention of physical education teachers and to take part in a play day at Woman's College in Greensboro.

GRA ACTIVITIES

The G.R.A. sponsored clubs included: Archery, Bowling, Swimming, Volley Ball, Golf, Tennis, Badminton, Bridge, Canasta, Softball, and Ping-pong. Each club covered a six-week period during which the girls held various tournaments. These pictures represent only a small minority of the participation in the many clubs. Members of the G.R.A. showed much interest and enthusiasm, for there were approximately one hundred girls entering into each activity.

UNDER THE NET AND OVER THE FENCE. Betsy Glenn, Anne Barefoot, Hannah Hamer, Kenny McArver, Jenny Smith.

Senior High Girls' Basketball

With their eyes on the coveted City Championship, the spirited Myers Park Fillies began intensive practice in November. They opened their season in January by copping a 53-14 win over Charlotte Catholic High, followed by wins over Salisbury and Central. In the city play-offs they faced Central and Harding in four games each and emerged as the 1958 City Champions.

At a Mother-Daughter Banquet which climaxed the season, each player received an engraved gold basketball. Tonda Taylor, Captain, accepted the City Championship trophy in behalf of the team. Individual awards went to: Sally McKaig, Most Valuable Player; Tonda Taylor, Best Sportsmanship; Joyce Hunter, Cynthia Baker, and Judy Mathews, Outstanding Guards; Pat Sloan, Mary Ann Buck, and Joanne Cooper, Outstanding Forwards.

Atkins,

Well, the end has come. It has been a miserable time. Boy, am I glad to get out of this $A&# (beautiful Myers Park school) like you say, its really too bad about the Pessimists club, but I hope you can further the club's progress next year. Its also too bad that you quit the Observer. That means you won't get paid, but mainly it means they'll CALL ME! Blast it, Carson, I can't have that, do you hear,

Let me be serious for just a minute — Atkins, you are a fine boy, one of the best, and I'm sure the 'Spark will profit from your talent and experience. I wish you the very, absolute best of everything — including girls. Its been a pleasure to work with you — you have a fine future. Thanks for everything, A.C. Take it easy!

Dear Atkins,

I have 2000 Things to tell you but I'm always blank during 6th period ~ its the atmosphere! I'm so happy that you are going to be a 'Spark editor next year, I know you'll do an excellent job! One word of advice, don't panic and clean up LAQ. Thank you for selling ads. This year wouldn't have been the same if I hadn't been able to go to press in your sweet car? Send me a post card from Blowing Rock

Love, To The 'Sparkiest editor
I know
Teeny

Atkins,

I'm glad you made Editor and be expecting a letter from me frequently. I am going to write the paper every week with a suggestion!!!

Atkins,
It really has been fun being in Latin with you this year and getting to know you in Hr. You are really a great boy. The best of Luck next year as co-editor of the Spark. You will really make a good one.
See ya,
Ann McClintock

Atkins,
I have enjoyed this year with you a great deal. I hope our few differences in ideas don't change anything in our friendship. Next year, if we make it through the summer, I hope we can enjoy another year of together. I also hope we can get together sometime over the summer and do something.
Your good friend,
Marvin Boone

Atkins
It really has been fun know you this year. I hope to see you next year. Don't work to hard on the paper. Have fun this summer. Always B²

Atkins
Well, the year is over. (What a year!) I bet you'll never forget Mrs. A. I won't. Have a wonderful time this summer. Lots of luck
See ya next year.
Paul Smith

Atkins,
We have really had a great time this year in english, especially with Mrs. Alexander. I hope you are able to do something about what we talked about. You are a fine boy and I am sure you will succeed

Atkins,
It has really been great knowing you in homeroom and sitting beside you in the T.V. class. I don't think I'll ever forget Miss Edlinger and that T.V. set.
You are a wonderful guy and I wish you success in the future.

Good Luck,
Kirby

Dear Atkins,
You have been something in English class — really I mean you are a good writer — you ought to be since you are on the Spark staff —
Virginia Long
P.S. Congratulations

Atkins,
It has been just great working with you this year. The many rides home and the ideas on help you have given me are much appreciated. Best of luck at the OBSERVER.

Dear Atkins,
My senior year has been just the very greatest and I hope yours will be just as wonderful!
Best of luck to a fine boy — one of my favorite cousins!
Love,
Gray

John it has been great fun being in your homeroom these last years and I know we're both looking forward to having a wonderful time next year. ha. ha!! I'll probably see you out at the Country Club some this summer because we ain't got no teen room. Don't work to hard this summer on the paper.
Lots of Luck,
Danny

Atkins,
It has been great knowing you these past two years in Jessie's room. Good luck and God bless you always. Mizpah.
